

Can you hear it?
Can you feel it?
There's something in the air.
Can you see it?
Can you touch it?
There's new life ev'rywhere.
There's a sense of hope, as we look forward to the spring.
Let's all be joyful, for the rising of the King.

*Let the sun light up your heart,
Let your heart be filled with joy,
Let the joy and love inside come shining through.
Look around and you will see,
On the ground and high up in the trees,
New life, new life has begun.*

Jesus told us, and he showed us,
How much he really cared.
Even in the darkest hour,
We know that he'll be there.
Then on the third day he rose up and came again.
Let's all be joyful, let's celebrate and sing.

*Let the sun light up your heart,
(Sun light up your heart,)
Let your heart be filled with joy,
(Heart be filled with joy,)
Let the joy and love inside come shining through.
(Come shining through.)
Look around and you will see,
(Round and you will see)
On the ground and high up in the trees,
New life, new life has begun.
New life, new life has begun.
New life, new life has begun.
New life, new life has begun.*
