

Walking in the light

This is the hour and it's time to say,
This moment now we must choose the way.
Love will be our only guide.
Rising up from deep inside.

A chance to give or a chance to take,
A heart to heal or a heart to break.
Love will be our only guide,
Rising up from deep inside.

A light will shine as we show compassion,
A light will shine as the chains are broken.
A light will shine as the world is filled with grace
and goodness.

Walking in the light. Hey! (shout)
Through the darkest night. Hey! (shout)
Hope is shining bright. Hey! (shout)
Walking in the light, in the light, in the light.

To walk beside those who walk alone,
To welcome those who are far from home.
Love will be our only guide,
Rising up from deep inside.

A light will shine as we show compassion,
A light will shine as the chains are broken.
A light will shine as the world is filled with grace
and goodness.

*Walking in the light. Hey!
Through the darkest night. Hey!
Hope is shining bright. Hey!
Walking in the light, in the light, in the light.*

A light will shine as the chains are broken.
A light will shine as the world is filled with grace
and goodness.
